About University

European university faculty of medicine started delivery of academic services in 2010. Since then the faculty has passed several steps to achieve high reputation and become one of the leading medical faculties in Georgia.

The faculty has academic personnel who have both academic and clinical experiences.

It has well-equipped and smart physical and information infrastructure. We are proud of our student services as one of the most valued options for our students.

Since 2010 the faculty has focused on international students as long as their number is growing every year due to high-quality teaching and memorable student experience.

We have strong ties with several Georgian and international medical organizations and faculties and intend to strengthen our relationships in terms of internationalization.
